Dear Joe:

Thank you very much for your letter of 5 January 1959 offering congratulations for my elevation to position of Deputy Chief. I am naturally flattered and honored (if a bit overwhelmed) by the selection. At the moment I am trying to learn enough about it to avoid being a dead weight.

Life moves along at a fairly hectic pace here. We always seem to be busy, and at the moment are trying to select a college for [redacted] to enter in 1960. We miss all the people in [redacted] and speak of you often.

Thanks again for your good wishes. Please give our best to Susan, and I will hope to see you again someday when perchance I may visit [redacted]

Sincerely yours,
